

RIDEAU VALLEY CONSERVATION FOUNDATION NEWS RELEASE

SOMETHING TO CHEER ABOUT!

CHAPMAN MILLS CONSERVATION AREA, June 7, 2012 — Residents along the Rideau have something to cheer about. Kyle Robertson (right), local representative from Molson Coors, presented a cheque for $30,000 to the Rideau Valley Conservation Foundation's Chair Jason Kelly (left) and Ottawa Councillor Steve Desroches for the construction of a permanent pedestrian bridge at the Chapman Mills Conservation Area. Thanks to online community cheering, the Chapman Mills pedestrian bridge was one of 21 projects from across Canada to receive Molson Coors support. A community celebration is planned for later this fall and construction of the 35-meter metal span bridge is planned for late fall 2012.
